

To align with ASA/ISO speeds, the speed obtained by this meter is 0.29 “to the right” of the speed called “delta X speed.”
 Derived from the 1955 paper by C. N. Nelson and J. L. Simonds of Kodak Research Labs, Simple Methods for Approximating the Fractional Gradient Speeds of Photographic Materials.